

- Risdon, Allan. Intercounty Exchange of Audio-Visual Materials. February, 190-92.
- Shouse, Mary. Recorded Lessons as a Means of Improving Instruction. May, 232-34.
- Smither, Faith W. What Should Parents Know About Their Children's Progress in School? November, 112-16.
- Weckler, Nora. Problems in Organizing Parent-Teacher Conferences. November, 117-26.

ARTICLES

- Audio-Visual Aids for Textbooks on Mexico. Jay Davis Conner and Francis W. Noel, February, 149-52.
- Audio-Visual Materials in Teacher Education at San Jose State College. Fred F. Harclerod. February, 184-89.
- Basic Educative Experiences for Young Children. August, 11-21.
- Bibliography on Reporting Pupil Progress to Parents. November, 127-28.
- Growth and Development of Children of Kindergarten Age. August, 5-10.
- Helping Teachers to Help Themselves in Music. Ronald W. Cook. May, 241-44.
- How a City School System Grows in Use of Instructional Materials. Lovelle C. Downing. February, 169-74.
- How Do Children Feel About Reports to Parents? Sybil Richardson. November, 98-111.
- How Good School-Home-Community Relations Aid the Kindergarten Program. August, 46-61.
- How to Help Teachers Hold Parent-Teacher Conferences. William R. Epton. November, 91-97.
- How Primary Teachers Can Make Audio-Visual Aids. Mrs. Marcia Devoe. February, 181-83.
- Instrumental Music in the Long Beach Elementary Schools. Fred Ohlendorf. May, 229-31.
- Instrumental Music Education, The Status of, in the Elementary Schools of California Cities. Ralph Matesky and Helen Heffernan. May, 206-18.
- Intercounty Exchange of Audio-Visual Materials. Allan Risdon. February, 190-92.
- Materials and Equipment Essential for an Effective Kindergarten Program. August, 38-45.
- Music Activities of the Schools. Floy Young Potter. May, 245-50.
- Music as a Part of the School Day. Mrs. Stanlie Pugh. May, 251-54.
- Music Comes Alive Through Listening. May, 219-25.
- Music Education, Organization and Supervision of, in the Elementary Schools of California Cities. Helen Heffernan and Ralph Matesky. May, 199-205.
- Music Environment in the Elementary School, Providing a. Mildred McGowan. May, 237-40.
- Music Serves the Exceptional Child. Frances E. Cole. May, 235-36.
- Opportunities in Elementary School Choral Groups. Alice Gallup. May, 226-28.
- Parent-Teacher Conferences—An Experience in Human Relations. Bernard Lonsdale. November, 78-90.
- Planning Plant Facilities for the Kindergarten. August, 32-37.
- Problems in Organizing Parent-Teacher Conferences. Nora Weckler. November, 117-26.

- Risdon, Allan. Intercounty Exchange of Audio-Visual Materials. February, 190-92.
- Shouse, Mary. Recorded Lessons as a Means of Improving Instruction. May, 232-34.
- Smither, Faith W. What Should Parents Know About Their Children's Progress in School? November, 112-16.
- Weckler, Nora. Problems in Organizing Parent-Teacher Conferences. November, 117-26.

ARTICLES

- Audio-Visual Aids for Textbooks on Mexico. Jay Davis Conner and Francis W. Noel, February, 149-52.
- Audio-Visual Materials in Teacher Education at San Jose State College. Fred F. Harclerod. February, 184-89.
- Basic Educative Experiences for Young Children. August, 11-21.
- Bibliography on Reporting Pupil Progress to Parents. November, 127-28.
- Growth and Development of Children of Kindergarten Age. August, 5-10.
- Helping Teachers to Help Themselves in Music. Ronald W. Cook. May, 241-44.
- How a City School System Grows in Use of Instructional Materials. Lovelle C. Downing. February, 169-74.
- How Do Children Feel About Reports to Parents? Sybil Richardson. November, 98-111.
- How Good School-Home-Community Relations Aid the Kindergarten Program. August, 46-61.
- How to Help Teachers Hold Parent-Teacher Conferences. William R. Epton. November, 91-97.
- How Primary Teachers Can Make Audio-Visual Aids. Mrs. Marcia Devoe. February, 181-83.
- Instrumental Music in the Long Beach Elementary Schools. Fred Ohlendorf. May, 229-31.
- Instrumental Music Education, The Status of, in the Elementary Schools of California Cities. Ralph Matesky and Helen Heffernan. May, 206-18.
- Intercounty Exchange of Audio-Visual Materials. Allan Risdon. February, 190-92.
- Materials and Equipment Essential for an Effective Kindergarten Program. August, 38-45.
- Music Activities of the Schools. Floy Young Potter. May, 245-50.
- Music as a Part of the School Day. Mrs. Stanlie Pugh. May, 251-54.
- Music Comes Alive Through Listening. May, 219-25.
- Music Education, Organization and Supervision of, in the Elementary Schools of California Cities. Helen Heffernan and Ralph Matesky. May, 199-205.
- Music Environment in the Elementary School, Providing a. Mildred McGowan. May, 237-40.
- Music Serves the Exceptional Child. Frances E. Cole. May, 235-36.
- Opportunities in Elementary School Choral Groups. Alice Gallup. May, 226-28.
- Parent-Teacher Conferences—An Experience in Human Relations. Bernard Lonsdale. November, 78-90.
- Planning Plant Facilities for the Kindergarten. August, 32-37.
- Problems in Organizing Parent-Teacher Conferences. Nora Weckler. November, 117-26.

- Recorded Lessons as a Means of Improving Instruction. Mary Shouse. May, 232-34.
Reporting Pupil Progress in California Cities. Helen Heffernan and Mrs. Lorene E. Marshall. November, 67-77.
San Diego's Department of Instructional Aids. Robert H. Burgert. February, 159-68.
Selected References for the Kindergarten Teacher. August, 62-64.
The Stanislaus County Audio-Visual and Library Program. Harold C. Francis and Ida May Edwards. February, 153-58.
Typical Experiences in the Kindergarten Day. August, 21-31.
Use of Audio-Visual Materials in a One-Teacher School. Mary Comstock. February, 175-80.
What Should Parents Know About Their Children's Progress in School? Faith W. Smither. November, 112-16.

NEWS NOTES

- Adventuring in Literature with Children. February, 135.
Audio-Visual Issue of the Journal. February, 129.
Bibliography of Books for Children. February, 141.
Booklet Published on Helicopters. February, 139.
California Association for Childhood Education Conference. February, 131.
California Congress of Parents and Teachers Announces Scholarships and Loans. February, 133.
California Looks at the Elementary School. May, 195.
Conservation Education Bibliography. February, 139.
Cover Photographs. May, 198.
Curriculum Laboratory Consultant Examination. August, 4.
Drawings by Sonia Riha. November, 66.
Folklore Contributes to the Curriculum. February, 140.
Kindergarten Issue of the Journal. August, 1-4.
Materials Available on Importance of American Public Schools. February, 141.
The Music Education Issue of the Journal. May, 193-95.
New Adoption of California History and Geography Textbooks. May, 196.
New Bulletin on What Children Can Make. February, 137.
New Primary Social Studies Material. February, 136.
Publications in Art Education. February, 143.
Publications, Recent, of the State Department of Education. February, 144-48.
Science: Matter or Method. February, 142.
Story on Glass Containers. February, 138.
Summer Conservation Field Schools. May, 197.
Teaching Children Who Move with the Crops. November, 65-66.
Two Stories by California Author. November, 66.
Use of Free Materials in Public Schools. February, 138.
When Children Write. February, 142.

O

printed in CALIFORNIA STATE PRINTING OFFICE